Day One – Sunday, June 15, 2025 – Royal Canadian Lodge, Banff

Today your flight takes you to Banff, a captivating gem nestled amidst the majestic peaks of the Canadian Rockies. This afternoon, you will have time to explore the town, which is known for its scenic beauty. Banff Ave, the main street, is the busiest place in town due to its wide range of shops and eateries. Tonight's welcome dinner reception will be at the Royal Canadian Lodge. (Dinner)

Day Two – Monday, June 16, 2025 – Royal Canadian Lodge, Banff

Embark on a journey this morning through Canada's first national park, Banff. The views of the majestic landscapes are stunning, as the soaring peaks meet lush forests, and crystal-clear rivers carve through the rugged terrain. A highlight today will be a visit to Lake Louise, the diamond of the Canadian Rockies. Be sure to savor the views of the turquoise waters which mirror the surrounding snow-capped peaks. Finally, the group will ascend Sulphur Mountain via the Banff Gondola to dine at the Northern Lights Restaurant. You'll get a stunning panoramic view of six surrounding mountain ranges and the Bow Valley below. (Breakfast & Dinner)

Day Three – Tuesday, June 17, 2025 – Overlander Resort, Jasper

This morning, your group will traverse the legendary Icefields Parkway, a scenic highway winding through the heart of the Canadian Rockies. Today's adventure begins with a stop at Peyto Lake, where you will behold its clear cobalt waters, framed by the forested shores and the snow-capped Rocky Mountains. Continuing, you'll arrive at the Athabasca Icefield, a vast expanse of ice and snow. A visit here is like peering into the heart of the planet. You will get to travel on a massive Ice Explorer all-terrain vehicle to the Athabasca Glacier, where you can walk on, feel, and drink from the glacier. As the day draws to a close, it's time to make your way to the Outlander Resort, which is located 30 minutes outside of Jasper. This is a tranquil haven set in the wilderness. With an unbeatable combination of incredible natural beauty, exceptionally comfortable accommodations, top notch service and gourmet dining, the lodge is a destination full of charm. (Breakfast & Dinner)

Day Four – Wednesday, June 18, 2025 – Overlander Resort, Jasper

Today you will journey through Jasper National Park. The park offers its visitors breathtaking sights with its shimmering glaciers, abundant wildlife, crystal-clear lakes, thundering waterfalls, deep canyons and evergreen forests, all surrounded by towering mountains. The first experience will be a scenic cruise to Spirit Island, a hidden gem nestled amidst the waters of Maligne Lake. As you glide across the serene lake, you'll feel a sense of tranquility wash over you, thus connecting you with the spirit of the land. Another stop is Mount Edith Cavell, which is often called "The Diamond Mountain," due to its distinct shape resembling a diamond. This mountain was named after a British nurse who was executed during WW 1 for helping Allied soldiers escape German-occupied Belgium. The group will have some down time to explore the town of Jasper, a charming mountain town. Here there are restaurants, cafés, shops, and galleries to investigate, all while soaking in the laid-back atmosphere and friendly hospitality. (Breakfast)

Day Five – Thursday, June 19, 2025 – Three Valley Lake Chateau

Today the group will head to Revelstoke, British Columbia, with a stop at the Athabasca Waterfalls. It is one of the most visited and photographed waterfalls in the Canadian Rockies. What makes it particularly captivating is not just its height, but also the sheer force with which the water cascades over the rocks. Enjoy the various viewing platforms and walking trails that offer different perspectives of the falls and the surrounding natural beauty. Tonight, you will enjoy an extraordinary hotel which is nestled in the heart of the valley and exudes old-world charm. Originally built in the late 19th century as a hunting lodge for wealthy aristocrats, it has since been transformed into a luxury hotel. This evening's adventure is a tour of a Ghost Town, where your guide narrates the history of the beautiful Eagle Pass and 3 Valley Gap, before taking you into the Golden Wheel Saloon where you select your steak right off the barbecue pit for a delicious dinner. (Breakfast & Dinner)

Day Six – Friday, June 20, 2025 – Sheraton Downtown, Vancouver

On your way to Vancouver, visit Hell's Gate, situated in British Columbia's Fraser Canyon, and is a stunning natural wonder where the mighty Fraser River surges through narrow cliffs. The sheer power of the river creates a spectacle of swirling rapids and frothy white water, framed by towering rock walls. Visitors can experience this awe-inspiring sight from viewing platforms or take a thrilling tram ride descending into the canyon. At the end of the day, you arrive back to civilization with a two-night stay in Vancouver. (Breakfast & Dinner)

Day Seven – Saturday, June 21, 2025 – Sheraton Downtown, Vancouver

Today's first visit is to the Capilano Suspension Bridge, which is suspended high above the Capilano River and stretches 450 feet. The surrounding area is a temperate rainforest, characterized by lush greenery, towering trees, and a diverse ecosystem. Below you, are the rushing waters of the Capilano River which cuts through the rocky terrain, adding to the dramatic scenery. Walking across the bridge is a multisensory experience that immerses you in the sounds, smells, beauty, and majesty of the Pacific Northwest wilderness. Next, the group will embark on a Vancouver city tour. The journey begins in the historic Gastown district, where cobblestone streets and Victorian architecture evoke the city's past. You'll stroll past the famous Gastown Steam Clock, a charming relic of the area's industrial heritage. Next, the tour winds through the bustling streets of Chinatown, the largest in Canada, where vibrant colors, exotic aromas, and intricate architecture transport you to the Far East. Continuing, the tour ventures into Stanley Park, a lush oasis in the heart of the city. Here, towering trees, manicured gardens, and scenic seawalls offer a tranquil escape from the urban bustle. The city tour culminates with the FlyOver Canada which offers a captivating flight simulation experience, taking visitors on a virtual journey across Canada's breathtaking landscapes. From soaring over the Rocky Mountains to gliding past Niagara Falls, the immersive ride combines stunning visuals, dynamic motion, and sensory effects to create an unforgettable adventure. This evening concludes your Canadian Rockies Adventure with a farewell dinner in the historic Gastown district at Steamworks restaurant. (Breakfast & Dinner)

Day Eight – Sunday, June 22, 2025 – Home

This morning, you'll fly home with vivid and amazing memories of the Canadian Rockies! (Breakfast)
