This cruise offers the perfect balance of relaxation and adventure. Whether you're a history buff, nature lover, or someone who simply wants to unwind in luxury while taking in breathtaking views, this journey has it all. Picture yourself sipping coffee on the deck as the sun rises over the Atlantic, exploring historic seaports and charming towns by day, and returning to the ship to enjoy gourmet dining and entertainment each night. You'll experience the best of coastal North America, from New England's quaint charm to the rugged, untouched beauty of Canada's eastern provinces. Every stop is designed to immerse you in the culture, history, and natural splendor of these unique regions, making this a cruise you'll never forget.

- Hudson Valley - Embark on a journey through the heart of New York's Hudson Valley, where rolling hills, charming towns, and a rich tapestry of history and culture await. This region, just a short drive from the bustle of New York City, offers a peaceful escape filled with stunning landscapes, majestic river views, and centuries-old estates. Whether you're a history enthusiast, a nature lover, or someone seeking culinary delights, a tour of the Hudson Valley promises an experience that will captivate all your senses.

- New England - Your voyage begins along the legendary coastlines of New England, a region where natural beauty and American history come alive. As you cruise into charming seaside towns, you'll be greeted by classic lighthouses, picturesque harbors, and vibrant fall foliage. From the sophisticated energy of Newport to the charm of Portland, Maine, every port offers a unique blend of New England culture. You'll enjoy fresh seafood in abundance, perhaps indulging in the perfect lobster roll while sipping a local craft beer as you take in the maritime views.

- Bar Harbor - Your voyage begins along the legendary coastlines of New England, a region where natural beauty and American history come alive. As you cruise into charming seaside towns, you'll be greeted by classic lighthouses, picturesque harbors, and vibrant fall foliage. From the sophisticated energy of Boston—with its cobblestone streets and historic landmarks like the Freedom Trail—to the charm of Portland, Maine, every port offers a unique blend of New England culture. You'll enjoy fresh seafood in abundance, perhaps indulging in the perfect lobster roll while sipping a local craft beer as you take in the maritime views.

- St. John - As your cruise continues northward, you'll arrive in St. John, New Brunswick, a coastal city rich in natural beauty and history. Explore the Reversing Rapids, a mesmerizing phenomenon where the powerful Bay of Fundy tides collide with the Saint John River, causing the water to reverse its flow. The historic charm of St. John's waterfront, its Victorian architecture, and vibrant markets provide plenty to explore, all while being enveloped by the region's warm hospitality.

- Bay of Fundy - One of the cruise's most anticipated highlights is the Bay of Fundy, home to the highest tides on earth. Experience the extraordinary power of nature as you witness the dramatic shift between low and high tides, revealing vast mudflats and rugged sea cliffs. Take a guided nature walk along the Fundy shoreline, go whale watching in its nutrient-rich waters, or simply sit back and marvel at this breathtaking natural wonder.

- Halifax - A stop in Halifax, Nova Scotia, presents a perfect mix of culture, history, and scenic beauty. Known for its picturesque waterfront, Halifax offers endless opportunities for exploration. Visit the historic Halifax Citadel, a star-shaped fort with panoramic views of the city and harbor. Stroll through the Halifax Public Gardens, an oasis in the heart of the city, or venture to Peggy's Cove, where you can snap a photo of one of the most iconic lighthouses in the world. Halifax's vibrant local culture, including music, art, and cuisine, will charm you as much as the natural scenery.
